Holly's House- April 15th-19th (Grades K-6th)

Dear Parent:

Holly's House has been invited to present our child abuse prevention program with your child's classroom. Since 2010, over 100,000 students in Gibson, Pike, Posey, Vanderburgh, Spencer, Dubois and Warrick counties have experienced this program. Holly's House teaches students skills to help them stay safe from abusive situations including physical, sexual, and emotional abuse, bullying, and exploitation. Students will be taught the importance of treating others with respect, developing personal boundaries, recognizing healthy versus unhealthy relationships, telling about unsafe secrets and relying on trusted adults to help when there is a concern for their personal safety.

Holly's House also teaches children how to identify sticky situations that are consistently used in predatory crimes against children. The content includes both awareness about being approached by people in face to face situations and through the use of digital communication. Through these age-appropriate presentations, your child will learn essential personal safety skills to improve self-reliance and raise self-esteem, all while being constantly reassured that most people are kind, safe and committed to their well-being. The program also includes lessons on internet safety, the lure of drugs or alcohol, bullying, and school violence prevention.

Children whose parents and guardians support such education are less likely to be bullied, abused or otherwise mistreated. Therefore, we invite you to be our Partner in Prevention by reinforcing the program's safety messages whenever possible.

We truly appreciate the opportunity to share these valuable lessons with your child. In addition, please feel free to contact us anytime with questions. After the program, we invite you to provide feedback through our online parent survey at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/TFSSParentSurvey>

Thank you for being a partner in your child's safety,

Donna Grant

After teaching in Catholic schools in Tennessee and Virginia, she completed her graduate studies at the Angelicum in Rome in 2015. Her dissertation was on spiritual motherhood according to St. Catherine of Siena. Sister taught theology in the Archdiocese of Vancouver for seven years before returning to Nashville in 2018 to teach at Aquinas College.
