Thoughts on Stewardship

"Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God." (Philippians 4:6)

Saint Paul reminds us that God is an abundant God - He is the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. Remember, that we are created in God's image and likeness. We, too, are made to be generous with all of our gifts as well. Placing our trust in God frees us from being a slave to possessions. It allows us to gratefully and generously share ourselves and our goods with others.

Mass Live-streamed - The Saturday evening 4:30 pm Mass will continue to be live-streamed on Facebook each week from Saint Wendel Church. You may watch it live at that time on the Saint Wendel Catholic Church Facebook page or view it later on the Saint Wendel Facebook page when it is posted.

Rest In Peace - We extend our sympathy to Mary M. Schmitt of Saint Francis Xavier Parish and Dorothy Elpers of Saint Wendel Parish upon the death of their sister Judy Kitchen who died on December 1, 2021. We extend our sympathy to Margaret Shaffer of Saint Francis Xavier Parish upon the death of her sister Ann Quinn who died on December 1, 2021.

Thank you for prayerfully considering how you can make a huge difference with a special year-end gift.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Make Us an Image of Justice

Loving Father,
in your goodness
you have made us in your image.
Make us an image
of your justice, mercy, and peace
that, like John,

we might point the way to you.
Bring all the world into the light of your love
that we might see your glory forever.
Let our rejoicing now be the seed
of the joy that is to come.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Rejoice!

Today's readings: Zephaniah 3:14–18a; Philemon 4:4–7; Isaiah 12:2–3, 4, 5–6; Luke 3:10–18. The nearness of Jesus, our salvation, is now made present and brings with it a call to rejoice.

In today's Gospel, the people ask John the Baptist what they are to do. His answer is always the same: act with justice. The Jewish people, then and now, await a messiah who will bring about perfect justice. John speaks to people waiting and watching, yesterday and today: act with justice.

Often, a need to change is not associated with "good news." Yet the people feel something in their hearts when they are with John. They experience his preaching as good news even when it is challenging. They desire the kingdom of God and see that the world is not there yet. They are called to change. John also makes clear that they themselves do not have to do everything. That is also a hopeful message. Each person does their part, and their part is enough. It is God who brings about the kingdom of justice and peace, fulfilling the work begun in creation.

John speaks of a baptism with the Holy Spirit and fire. Fire can purify metal, and its heat in boiling water sterilizes objects. While preparing for Jesus' coming, we might ask the Spirit to purify our hearts so that we seek to act justly. What could you do this week to live the value of justice? What in you must be taken away to live this more perfectly?

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, December 13

St. Lucy

St. Lucy was an early Christian martyr who died during the Roman persecutions. Accounts say that her eyes were gouged out when she was martyred, and therefore she is the patron of those with eye illnesses. Her feast day is often celebrated with candles because, in the Northern Hemisphere, the day is among the shortest days of the year. St. Lucy is one of eight women included in the canon of the Mass. Today's readings: Numbers 24:2-7, 15-17a; Psalm 25:4-5ab, 6, 7bc, 8-9; Matthew 21:23-27.

Tuesday, December 14

St. John of the Cross

St. John of the Cross, a doctor of the Church, was a priest, mystic, and writer who lived in Spain in the sixteenth century. One of his best-known works is The Dark Night of the Soul. He was a close collaborator of St. Teresa of Avila. Today's readings: Zephaniah 3:1-2, 9-13; Psalm 34:2-3, 6-7, 17-18, 19, 23; Matthew 21:28-32.

Wednesday, December 15

Signs

"The blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have the good news proclaimed to them." Often we wish for miraculous signs that will help us know where to go. But these actions of Jesus are that and more. The hope of the people of Israel was in a person who would bring about a new kingdom in which the sufferings of this world would be left behind. These particular signs are a message to John the Baptist: Jesus is the long-awaited messiah. Today's readings: Isaiah 45:6b-8, 18, 21c-25; Psalm 85:9ab, 10, 11-12, 13-14; Luke 7:18b-23.

Thursday, December 16

God's Faithfulness

God's love will be constant, the covenant of peace unbroken, even if the mountains fall. While people often disappoint us when commitments are not kept, God's promise is not reliant on our faithfulness but on the faithfulness of God. We know that God is a keeper of promises: promises kept to Sarah, to Hannah, to Elizabeth, to Mary, to Noah, to Abraham, to Moses, to John the Baptist. We can trust that even in our darkest moments God is faithful to us as well. Today's readings: Isaiah 54:1-10; Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11-12a, 13b; Luke 7:24-30.

Friday, December 17

O Wisdom

Within the Church's liturgical tradition, the "O" Antiphons are prayed the seven days before Christmas. Each of these antiphons presents a title for the messiah. Many are familiar with these seven titles because they begin the verses of the hymn "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel." The first antiphon, which is used on December 17, is O Wisdom. You might sing this verse of "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," or you might pray Evening Prayer. You can find resources online, including apps to assist you, in praying the Liturgy of the Hours. Today's readings: Genesis 49:2, 8-10; Psalm 72:1-2, 3-4ab, 7-8, 17; Matthew 1:1-17.

Saturday, December 18

The Dream of St. Joseph

St. Joseph was a righteous man, meaning he followed the law of Moses, and according to the Law, Mary would be put to death. St. Joseph also must have been a man of great compassion who was accustomed to God's voice. When the angel came to him in a dream, he immediately believed. Moreover, he immediately acted. Today, spend time in silent prayer so that, like Joseph, you may know your call when it comes and answer with your whole heart. Today's readings: Jeremiah 23:5-8; Psalm 72:1-2, 12-13, 18-19; Matthew 1:18-25.

DOING THE IMPOSSIBLE
JUST TAKES A LITTLE MORE TIME

It is hard to believe, but finally here it is. Habitat for Humanity, North Posey Build now holds the deed to 80 East Oak Street in Poseyville. It sits in sight of Saint Francis Xavier Church.

There are several wonderful events that have occurred last week.

1. A developer from Indianapolis has agreed to GIVE US, yes free, the wonderful lot shown above. When informed that it was for "Habitat for Humanity", the deed arrived signed over to Habitat.
2. Our first family has been approved to be candidates for the coming home. They are starting on their required "300" hours of sweat equity. They are also beginning required courses in home ownership, setting family budgets, learning the importance of savings for emergencies, home repair and being a good neighbor. Each family is also required to have a MENTOR to guide them through the process.
3. Thanks to donations from you the parish members of Saint Wendel and Saint Francis Xavier, The Knights of Saint John and a number of corporate donors we have generated $149,000 for this project. That's enough for our first house and a big chunk toward our second.

ALL OF THIS BECAUSE YOU KNOW THAT EVERYONE DESERVES A DECENT PLACE TO LIVE.

Thank you and blessings to you all!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
